Natixis Investment Managers appoints Helen Yang as Head of China

As a further demonstration of its strategic ambitions and with a focus on client centricity, Natixis Investment Managers (Natixis IM), one of the world's largest asset managers by AUM*, has appointed Helen Yang as Chief Representative and Head of China effective today.

In her role, Ms. Yang will be responsible for leading Natixis IM's business in China mainland, Hong Kong and Macau. She will continue to ensure a high quality of service to Natixis IM's clients, help its affiliates grow their business and explore new opportunities in the region. She will be based in Beijing and report to Hong Kong-based Fabrice Chemouny, Head of Asia Pacific.

Ms. Yang has over 15 years of investment experience in both China and the US, most recently at Fosun International Ltd and before that at China Ping An Insurance Overseas, State Administration of Foreign Exchange (SAFE) and early in her career at General Motors Asset Management.

"Helen is a perfect fit for Natixis IM, bringing over six years of experience at one of the world's leading insurance companies, a key focus for us, combined with her deep China market expertise," said Fabrice Chemouny. "China is an important market for Natixis IM as we continue to focus on growing our client base delivering active management with a focus on sustainability".

Natixis Investment Managers first established its presence in Asia Pacific in Tokyo in 2001. Since then, the firm has added offices in Singapore, Hong Kong, Seoul, Taipei, Sydney and Beijing.

Ms. Yang holds a Master of Science in Finance from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and a Bachelor of Chemical Engineering from Tsinghua University. She is also a chart holder of CFA and CAIA.
