Natixis Investment Managers expands its global equities offering with the creation of Thematics Asset Management

Natixis Investment Managers announces the creation of Thematics Asset Management, a new investment company¹ based in Paris, that joins the firm's global lineup of investment affiliates and will provide investors with access to a wide range of high conviction and active global thematic strategies, including, Safety, Water, Artificial Intelligence & Robotics, starting in Q2, 2019².

Thematics Asset Management will be led by Karen Kharmandarian, Chairman & CIO, and Mohammed Amor, Managing Partner and Head of Development. The investment team will also include Arnaud Bisschop, Frédéric Dupraz and Nolan Hoffmeyer, who joined Natixis Investment Managers in November 2018, and Simon Gottelier who joins as a senior portfolio manager on the Water strategy.

The management team consists of the above-named partners, specialized in global thematic investing, with a high-conviction, long-term approach and an emphasis on integrating Environmental, Social and Governance ('ESG') considerations throughout the investment decision-making process.

Prior to joining Natixis Investment Managers and over the past 11 years, the team has developed and launched a range of thematic funds and were together involved in the management of more than $21 billion of assets. The investment managers have a strong expertise in bottom-up stock picking, identifying the companies exposed to long-term secular growth themes that should deliver risk-adjusted returns superior to those of broader global equity markets. The team's robust investment process will rely on broad investable universes and the building of portfolios based solely on the merits of the individual stocks. The result is a range of portfolios that reflect high levels of conviction and are global, unconstrained, benchmark-agnostic and socially responsible.

"The long-term structural changes underway across all sectors of the global economy pose unique challenges for our clients as for us. The launch of Thematics Asset Management, as part of our multi-affiliate asset management model exemplifies Natixis' response turning a long-term trend from a challenge into an opportunity," said François Riahi, Chairman of Natixis Investment Managers' board and CEO of Natixis.

One of the world's largest asset managers with €808b in AUM³ and powered by the expertise of 24 specialized investment managers, Natixis Investment Managers offers access to highly active, high conviction managers, each of whom concentrates on the investment styles and disciplines in which they have proven expertise, the ultimate objective is to help investors to build stronger and more diversified portfolios over the long term.

"The addition of Thematics Asset Management to our lineup of affiliated managers makes a substantial contribution to our global equity range and provides our investors around the world with access to distinctive thematic strategies. The team's strong expertise, proven track record and highly-active investment approach fit perfectly within our multi-affiliate model," commented Jean Raby, CEO of Natixis Investment Managers.

"Thematics Asset Management's partners share an entrepreneurial spirit combined with an active management approach. Our edge lies in our focus in identifying, developing and managing multi-decade investment themes fueled by four global primary forces that are transforming our world: demographic changes, globalization, innovation and scarcity. We are long-term by design in our investment style and in close alignment with our clients' interest," explained Karen Kharmandarian, Chairman & CIO, Thematics Asset Management.

"Natixis Investment Managers' multi-affiliate model offers tremendous growth opportunities, and we are pleased to become an affiliate of one of the world's leading asset managers. It allows us to access a truly global distribution network and to benefit from the support of a large financial services group while retaining our autonomy and focusing on what we do best: capturing investment opportunities and delivering sustainable returns for our investors," said Mohammed Amor, Managing Partner and Head of Development, Thematics Asset Management.

The team recently launched a range of thematic strategies - Safety, Water, AI& Robotics, Meta strategy - under the Luxembourg-domiciled Natixis International Funds (Lux) I SICAV and new strategies will launch, including one over the course of the year.

About Thematics Asset Management¹

Thematics Asset Management is a dedicated investor in innovative thematic strategies. The Company invests in stocks of businesses operating in a collection of markets that are growing at a rate superior to that of the broader global economy due to the long-term secular growth drivers that underpin them. With a robust investment process that relies on broad investable universes, the experienced analyst-portfolio managers use bottom-up fundamental research to analyse companies in the value chain of their theme and focus on building conviction-based portfolios based solely on the merits of the individual stocks and are global, unconstrained, benchmark-agnostic and socially responsible. In every case, the drivers underpinning the strategy are fuelled by four global primary forces that are transforming our world: demographic changes, globalization, innovation and scarcity. Today, Thematics Asset Management's core investment themes include Water, Safety, and Artificial Intelligence & Robotics.
