Philosophy, process, and risk management

Capital Allocators

- The team seeks to evaluate management’s ability to allocate capital and expand the company’s balance sheet, in addition to the reinvestment opportunities for the capital being produced

Emerging or Expanding Moats

- Seek companies with emerging or expanding moats, as these moats improve cash flow return on invested capital (CFROI) and increase the spread over the cost of capital

Growth Life Cycle

- The team diversifies the portfolio across all stages of the growth life cycle
